

Do you think we should take some with us when we go away next week?

What might the friends be considering taking away with them?

Yeah maybe... I don't know if we'll be able to get any once we're there.

Why might their friend Deniz be unhappy with this plan?

Don't tell Deniz though - he'll flip out!

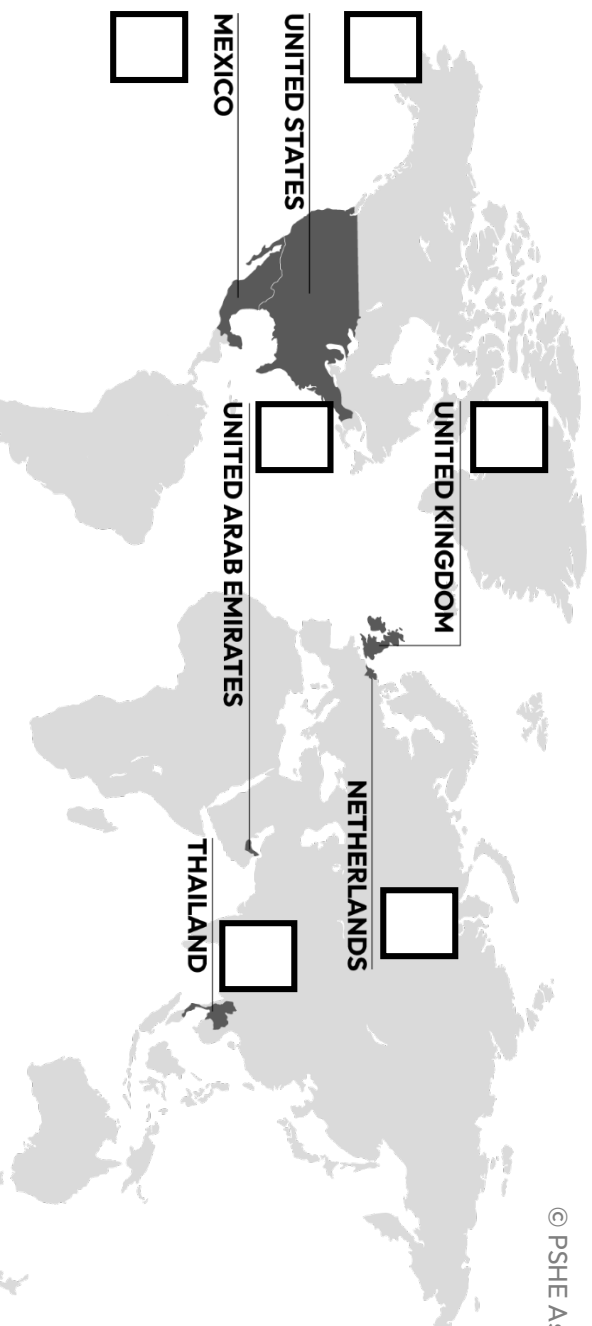

What might the consequences be if the friends are caught travelling with illegal substances?

---

COMPLETE THIS SECTION AT THE END OF THE LESSON

If the friends are found in possession of illegal substances while travelling, how might this impact them in the long term?

Deniz finds out what his friends are planning to do. What could he say or do in response? Write the first three lines of a conversation that he might have with them.

A The legal age for buying and drinking alcohol is 21. States have different laws about buying and using other substances, including cannabis. Legal consequences for possession or trafficking of illegal substances can range from receiving a fine, to a severe prison sentence.

B The legal age for buying alcohol is 18. Young people aged 16+ may drink certain alcoholic beverages in licensed venues if they are accompanied by an adult and eating a meal. Other substances are restricted by laws which forbid the sale, possession, and use of illegal substances, according to their category. Legal consequences for the possession of, supply, or intent to supply illegal substances can range from fines to a prison sentence.

C The possession of illegal substances, (including substances which are derived from other drugs, such as CBD oil), is restricted and controlled by very strict laws. It is against the law to drink alcohol in public apart from in licensed venues, and a liquor licence is required to drink alcohol at home. The majority of states have a legal drinking age of 21, with some regions having a total ban on alcohol. Legal consequences for possession or trafficking of illegal substances can include imprisonment or the death penalty.

D The legal age for buying alcohol is 18. Despite some beliefs about the sale of cannabis being legal, buying or using illegal substances including cannabis other than in specific designated areas is forbidden. Legal consequences for the possession or purchase of illegal drugs outside of these specific limits can range from confiscation or a fine, to a prison sentence.

E The legal age for buying alcohol is 18. There are strict laws which restrict the sale, possession, and use of illegal substances. Legal consequences include severe prison sentences.

F The legal age for buying and drinking alcohol, which can only be purchased at set times of the day, is 20. There are very strict laws against the use of other substances, including cannabis. Legal consequences for the use of alcohol where it is not permitted, or sharing pictures of people drinking alcohol on social media, can range from a fine to imprisonment. Consequences for the possession or trafficking of illegal substances can be severe, including imprisonment or the death penalty.

A The legal age for buying and drinking alcohol is 21. States have different laws about buying and using other substances, including cannabis. Legal consequences for possession or trafficking of illegal substances can range from receiving a fine, to a severe prison sentence.

B The legal age for buying alcohol is 18. Young people aged 16+ may drink certain alcoholic beverages in licensed venues if they are accompanied by an adult and eating a meal. Other substances are restricted by laws which forbid the sale, possession, and use of illegal substances, according to their category. Legal consequences for the possession of, supply, or intent to supply illegal substances can range from fines to a prison sentence.

C The possession of illegal substances, (including substances which are derived from other drugs, such as CBD oil), is restricted and controlled by very strict laws. It is against the law to drink alcohol in public apart from in licensed venues, and a liquor licence is required to drink alcohol at home. The majority of states have a legal drinking age of 21, with some regions having a total ban on alcohol. Legal consequences for possession or trafficking of illegal substances can include imprisonment or the death penalty.

D The legal age for buying alcohol is 18. Despite some beliefs about the sale of cannabis being legal, buying or using illegal substances including cannabis other than in specific designated areas is forbidden. Legal consequences for the possession or purchase of illegal drugs outside of these specific limits can range from confiscation or a fine, to a prison sentence.

E The legal age for buying alcohol is 18. There are strict laws which restrict the sale, possession, and use of illegal substances. Legal consequences include severe prison sentences.

F The legal age for buying and drinking alcohol, which can only be purchased at set times of the day, is 20. There are very strict laws against the use of other substances, including cannabis. Legal consequences for the use of alcohol where it is not permitted, or sharing pictures of people drinking alcohol on social media, can range from a fine to imprisonment. Consequences for the possession or trafficking of illegal substances can be severe, including imprisonment or the death penalty.

DINAH'S STORY (A)

Dinah looks up the party and sees that it is being hosted by a licensed bar, so the friends all agree to go.

What might happen next? What might the consequences of attending the party be?

---

FOLD UNDER HERE

Once they are at the party, they see that the bar staff are checking for ID. Not everyone in the group is 18. AJ sees the group and offers some of what they've brought to the party. Dinah's friends want to stay on the beach with AJ, but she isn't sure if this is safe or legal and is worried about getting into trouble.

What might some of Dinah's concerns be? What might AJ have brought? What might the consequences be if they stay and accept AJ's offer?

---

FOLD UNDER HERE

Dinah decides it isn't worth the risk to stay and heads back to the hotel. Her friends decide not to take anything from AJ but stay for a little while longer. Later, the party starts to get really busy, and some local police officers show up. Lots of people try to leave and the group get separated from one another.

What could Dinah's friends do next?

DINAH'S STORY (B)

Dinah's mum calls to check in, and Dinah asks for her advice about the party. Her friends overhear, and are upset with Dinah for telling her mum, so they decide to go to the party without her.

What might happen next? What might the consequences of attending the party be?

---

FOLD UNDER HERE

A few hours later, the friends arrive back at the hotel because one of the group, Saira, has started to feel unwell. They know she has taken something at the party.

What options do Dinah and the group have?

---

FOLD UNDER HERE

The friends find the number for emergency services and ask for medical help. When the paramedics arrive, they ask what has happened. The friends all look at each other, worried about what to say.

What options do they have? How could they ensure Saira's safety?